About Us

Always Sunday actually began as a supper club for creative people with founder Lexi Wareham-Dart hosting shoppable events in her own home in Bath, May 2018.

Always Sunday is now:

- An independent homewares store
- Three Luxury cottages to stay in Bath
- A pub and restaurant serving the best Sunday roast in Bath!

Always Sunday is..

..that Sunday morning feeling when you wake up to breakfast in bed, surrounded by beautiful things, your favourite people and the delicious potential of the day ahead.

We love SMALL MAKERS

When Always Sunday Store first opened we always knew we wanted to showcase the best small, local makers - the talented artists that you won't find in your average homewares store.

From our 'leather guy' contact at Newdile Studio who creates bespoke pieces for our store and boltholes to the cult favourite ceramicist Hana Karim that we've stocked since the very beginning, each of our small makers is an actual human behind the art and we work to curate strong, long lasting relationships with each maker.

ENAMELWARE

When we opened the doors to our luxury accommodation, the Always Sunday Boltholes, we realised that regular crockery just wouldn't do. Our guests needed something that was both absolutely beautiful and also incredibly hardwearing to be used day after day in all sorts of ways. The very best enamelware comes from Denizli in Turkey where artisans have been using the same tried and tested techniques for generations.

We've worked with them to create a colour coordinated collection of enamelware that can mix and match in any home style. Each piece is dishwasher, oven and freezer proof and stamped with the Always Sunday signature on the bottom. Our designs are made in small batches with limited runs so we only ever have a certain amount of each colour way.

CANDLES

Find your new favourite scent with our exclusive scented candles, poured by hand in London, UK using vegan soy wax and paraben free oils and packaged with the signature Always Sunday seal.

Each fragrance has been handpicked by Lexi and her team with iconic names like 'Lick Me (no not really)', 'Man of My Dreams', 'Miss Havisham' and 'Garden Party at the Royal Crescent'.
